

WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

at HYATT house® Salt Lake City/Sandy | 9685 South Monroe Street

HYATT house is pleased to work with Martha Stewart's American Made to introduce you to a few of the local businesses that bring color and creativity to their community.

With its striking alpine views and awe-inspiring natural beauty, it comes as no surprise that many artists and makers call Salt Lake City home. As the capital of Utah, Salt Lake City combines the amenities of a modern city with the friendliness of a quaint, mountain town. The city is noted for its wide streets and spacious blocks brimming with shops, restaurants, and unique attractions. Below are a few of our favorites.

EAT

FLAVORS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD Em's Restaurant

This much-loved neighborhood bistro is located in the heart of Salt Lake City's historic Marmalade Hill, in a beautifully renovated, 100-year-old Center Street Market Building. Chef and owner Emily Gassman uses fresh, local ingredients from nearby farmers' markets to shape her ever-changing menu—from daily specials to mouthwatering classics. (DISTANCE, 16 MILES)

LOCALLY MADE, LOCALLY SOLD Abode

A hidden gem in the Millcreek area, Abode is home to the cheeriest collection of household odds and ends. "Fun, funky, and functional," the store's eclectic curation is a fun treasure trove for both the young and young at heart. Local's tip: In the summer, Abode hosts a local craft and vintage flea in its parking lot—don't miss it! (DISTANCE, 11 MILES)

FUN JUST MINUTES AWAY Salt Lake Film Society

The Salt Lake Film Society includes two local landmarks: the Broadway Centre Cinemas and the historic Tower Theatre. Hosting more than 100 indies, documentaries, and international films annually, the Broadway Centre Cinemas also boasts a concession counter, featuring locally made pizzas and coffee. The Tower Theatre hosts much-anticipated events such as the Society's "Sing With" musical-sing-along series and the quarterly Local Open Screen Nights, offering a screening platform to local filmmakers.
